GitHub Certification Exam Registration Guide

GitHub Certification Exam Registration Guide

- As of July 1, the test vendor for GitHub Certifications has changed. This has led to partial updates in the application procedure.
Please note that if you have taken the exam before, the steps have changed.
- Prior confirmation of your Microsoft account settings is required.
Even if you already have an account, please carefully review the instructions starting from page 4.

Confirming Your Microsoft Account Settings

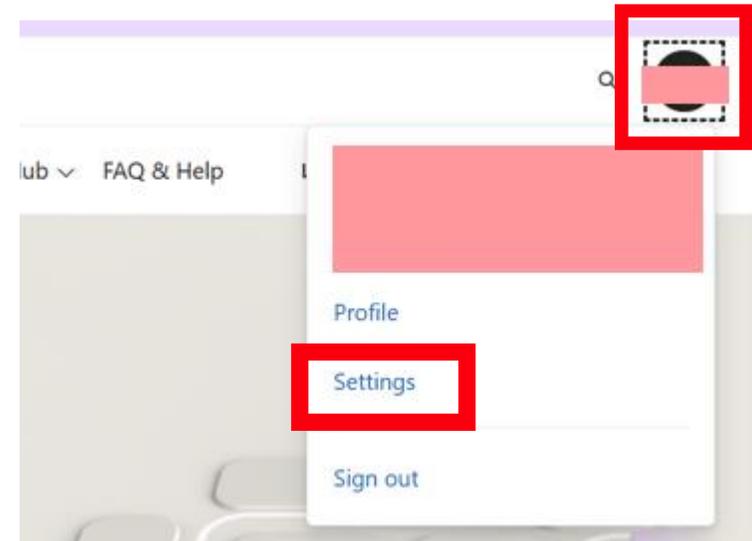

Confirming Your Microsoft Account Settings

1. Access Microsoft Learn at Training - Courses, Learning Paths, Modules | Microsoft Learn , and sign in by clicking the “Sign In” button at the top right corner.

Note:

If you do not have a Microsoft account, click “Sign In”, then select “Create one” and follow the on-screen instructions to set up your account.

2. Click your profile icon at the top right and select “Settings”.

Confirming Your Microsoft Account Settings

3. Under “Personal info, username and URL” verify that the “Legal Name” field is accurate. If incorrect, please update it accordingly.

Legal name

Required to register for certification exams.

First name * Middle name Last name *

Enter your legal name EXACTLY as it appears on your Government Issued ID. You must take this ID to the certification exam and the proctor will check that they match. If you don't have a legal last name, please enter _ in the last name field.

Checking this box indicates that you acknowledge your legal name to be entered correctly.

On the day of the exam,
the legal name you registered must exactly match the name on your identification document.

Confirming Your Microsoft Account Settings

4. Check “Login Account Management”. If the signed-in account is your company account, no further action is needed.
5. If it is not, click “+ Add login accounts”, sign in with your company email address, and follow the prompts to link your accounts.
6. Once linked, your company account will appear under “Other Learn login accounts”.

Note: If account management is required during the exam registration process, please follow the on-screen instructions carefully.
